Augment the Ireland Development Grant by means of the Abolition of two Judgeships and the Reduction of the Salary of the Lord Chancellor and the Transfer of certain accumulations, and to make provision with respect to the application of portion of that Grant. A.D. 1906.

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- 5 1.—(1) The vacancy existing at the passing of this Act in the office of puisne judge of the King's Bench Division of the High Court shall not be filled. Abolition of judgeships.
- (2) On the occurrence at any time of one other vacancy in the office of a judge of the said Division, other than the Lord Chief Justice, the Lord Lieutenant may, if of opinion that the amount or state of business in that Division renders it desirable, by Order in Council declare that the vacancy shall not be filled, and the number of judges of that Division shall thereupon be reduced to eight.
- 15 2. On the occurrence of the vacancy next ensuing, after the passing of this Act, in the office of Lord Chancellor, the annual salary attached to that office shall be reduced to six thousand pounds. Salary of Lord Chancellor.
- 20 3. An annual sum equal to the reduction of charge upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom effected by the operation of this Act, or any Order in Council thereunder, shall be paid out of money provided by Parliament as an addition to and shall form part of the Ireland Development Grant. Additional payments to Ireland Development Grant.
